

Where the Wildflowers Bloom (Paperback)

By Ariel Godwin

Glass Page Books, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Set against the back drop of the Battle of Chickamauga during the Civil War, Viola visits her daughter, Roxie, who lives in a small, run down shack in the woods, not far from where the fighting is taking place. Viola, a good woman and mother, has been oppressed by the truth that her daughter is a prostitute. When Viola arrives at Roxie s, she discovers her burying something in a small wildflower meadow in the woods. Just before she dies, Roxie begrudgingly admits what it was that she had buried, and there are many more besides the one. Viola is horrified. Viola faces the problem without truly understanding the extreme volatility of the situation, but in doing so, she unknowingly elicits the help of forces that will one day take her to her own death and beyond.
