

How Children Learn (Paperback)

By Frank N Freeman

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There are two classes of teachers of education and writers of educational textbooks. The first, the earliest in the field and still the more numerous, are decidedly vague in their knowledge, yet pompous in their claims of knowing it all, laud the methods of teaching far more than the material to be taught, and for the most part merit the scorn which they receive from their colleagues on the faculty. As writers, they are all-inclusive in their scope, cover up lack of accurate knowledge by sweeping, dogmatic statements, revel in superlatives, and produce a type of textbook worth little when published and worthless a few years later. It is this class chiefly that has brought upon teachers of education the much-discussed criticisms in The Unpopular Review and the vituperations of Professor Shorey. The second class is composed of educational experts, men who look upon teaching as a science which may be studied as exactly as any laws of psychology and the principles of administration that bring about successful schools; as writers, these men, unfortunately still few in number,...
