Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Village Class for Drawing and Wood Carving: Hints to Teachers During a residence of some months in a country parish in Scotland I started, with the help of my sister, an evening class for drawing and wood-carving; and it has occurred to me that a record of what we did might be useful to others willing and able to conduct such a class if they had a handbook to suggest a plan of work. The laird kindly gave the use of a room which had been the village school before a new building had been set. up by the School Board. Some old tables and forms were borrowed, until, after a year or two, by means of a Penny Bidding, sufficient funds were raised to have two excellent steady tables made by a village carpenter. Private friends, who found the class already started, came forward most willingly with donations to help in the first outlay.
