Minshall comes smashing into the literary world with his debut collection of poetry giving a haunting portrayal of a young man enduring an existential crisis without guidance or motivation. He fills his life with booze, sex, and cigarettes which ultimately swallows him deeper into madness but, set against the back-drop of love and hope, creates a profound result. My Life in Limbo: Poetry of a Boy Gone Mad is filled with sadness, dreams, endurance, art, happiness, and at times just plain gibberish; a compelling look into the meaning of life and the journey through the darkest parts of the soul.
