Asian Regionalism: Canadian and Indian Perspectives

---

By Charan D. Wadhwa, Yuen Pau Woo

APH Publishing Corporation, 2005. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Canada and India are in many Ways Natural partners - two middle powers sharing a common Political and Legal Tradition derived from the British Commonwealth, as well as a commitment to multiculturalism, Democracy and international institutions. India `s founding Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru had a personal Friendship with Canadian Prime Ministers Trudeau and Pearson. Despite this promising start, bilateral Relations never took flight - a function of Cold War politics, India `s relative Isolation through much of the post-independence period, the enormous Distance between the two countries, and, deep disagreements over India `s testing of Nuclear weapons in 1974 and 1998. By the start of the new millennium, India and Canada were ready to embark on a new Phase in bilateral relations - one defined not only by trade and Investment interests, but also by a contemporary understanding of their standing in the world, and the potential contribution that both Countries can make to issues of regional and global significance. In leading the shift to a new way of thinking about Canada-India relations, the Asia Pacific Foundation of Canada and the Centre for Policy Research in New Delhi launched the "Track 2" Canada-India Policy Dialogue...
