Alphascript Publishing Jan 2010, 2010. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 220x150x6 mm. Neuware - John Ray (November 29, 1627 January 17, 1705) was an English naturalist, sometimes referred to as the father of English natural history. Until 1670, he wrote his name as John Wray. From then on, he used 'Ray', after 'having ascertained that such had been the practice of his family before him'. He published important works on plants, animals, and natural theology. His classification of plants in his Historia Plantarum, was an important step towards modern taxonomy. Ray rejected the system of dichotomous division by which species were classified according to a pre-conceived, either/or type system, and instead classified plants according to similarities and differences that emerged from observation. Thus he advanced scientific empiricism against the deductive rationalism of the scholastics. He coined the term species. 92 pp. Englisch.
