When, therefore, the intending emigrant has decided to make his future home in Canada, the question arises as to which locality within its vast domain he should betake himself. The choice depends upon so many contingencies that each one must determine it according to his own circumstances and predilections; but the facts set forth in the following pages prove that for the tenant farmers, farm labourers and all who desire to devote themselves to agricultural industry, and transfer their energies and (those who have it) their capital to the New World, there are many special advantages offered by the Province of Ontario. In this Province substantial wealth, or a reasonable competency, is within the reach of every industrious man whose efforts are intelligently directed. The penniless pioneer of a few years ago is the substantial, independent farmer of to-day. The uplifting of the people in social and material comfort is a process as visibly going on from year to year as the revolution of the seasons. Its progress is recorded in the annual advance in the value of accumulated property, in the increase of trade, in the establishment and development of religious, educational and benevolent institutions, in the spread of social refinement, in the cultivation of the sciences, in the appliance of every art that ministers to...
