Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Norfolk County Agricultural and Home Making Bulletin, 1918, Vol. 1 The Trustees and Director of the Norfolk County Agricultural School announce the appointment of Miss Stella S. Simonds of Worcester, Head of the Home Economics Department in the Arlington High School, to the position of Home Demonstration Agent for Norfolk County. Miss Simonds is a graduate of Worcester English High School, Cushing Academy (Ashburnham, Mass.,) and the Household Arts Department of the Framingham Normal School, and has studied at Columbia University and Simmons College. She has taught home-making courses for two years in the Dover, N.H., High School, and for nearly two years in Arlington. The co-operating agencies in the conduct of this home demonstration work are the Norfolk County Agricultural School, the Massachusetts Board of Education, the Massachusetts Agricultural College, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is the aim of this department to further the interests of the home throughout the county. We believe that this can best be accomplished by co-operating with the different clubs and organizations in the county as the Grange, Woman's Clubs, District and School Nurse Associations, Parent-Teacher Associations, Boys and Girls Clubs, Conservation Committees and other groups of people interested. We are anxious to help in the present food conservation movement. The Home Demonstration Agent will give talks and demonstrations on food values, menu-making, food economy, and elimination of waste, canning and preservation of foods, and subjects relating to household management and household sanitation. If we can be of service to you, communicate with Miss Stella S. Simonds, County Home Demonstration Agent, Norfolk County Agricultural School, Walpole, Mass. Telephone 268. Provision has been made to...
