Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Reception of the Returned Soldiers of Weston, Mass;, And Memorial Service in Honor of the Fallen: August 22, 1865 Tuesday, August 22d, was set apart by the citizens of Weston for a memorial service in honor of their gallant young men who had fallen in battle, and died in the service of the country, and at the same time to give a public reception to the returned soldiers. The exercises commenced in the Unitarian Church at about one o'clock. The church was very appropriately trimmed for the occasion, bearing upon the walls, upon either side of the pulpit, the names and places of battle of the deceased soldiers, trimmed in evergreen and black, surmounted with the stars and stripes. Upon the side walls were the following mottoes: Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. My peace I give unto you. He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. The noble army of martyrs praise thee. Though an host should encamp against me, my...
