Mrs. Rutledge is spinning, the father reading the papers, Peter learning. Mary sewing, Lincoln reading a law book. Annie is not present at the beginning of the act, but enters with her baby sister after a few persons have spoken, a pretty girl of twenty. Father (looking up from his paper): Where is Annie? Mary and Peter both: Yes, mother, where is Annie? (Lincoln lifts his eyes from his law books and seems interested.) Mother: She is dressing the baby for the night. Annie (entering with the baby in her arms) sings: Hush, my babe, lie still and slumber The lullaby becomes softer and softer, finally dying away. Annie puts the baby into the cradle during the first stanza of the lullaby, then rocks it, sitting in a chair near her mother before another spinning wheel which she operates just as the occasion permits. Mother: I suppose the little sister will sleep tight. She did not sleep much during the day. Annie: What...
